

Hey Everybody,

Just a quick note to thank you for your support...we won our case today. There is now case law in the State of Ohio that clearly defines fiduciary duty of a realtor to a client re: referral of an unqualified, unskilled home inspector (in a nutshell). Kemp vs. Cutler Realty is now a precedent that can be used by any future victim in Ohio. It is a consumer protection that did not exist prior to today's verdict. The jury found Cutler at fault across the board. So, we are satisfied.

Thanks again,

Deb and Clyde Kemp
